A KENTUCKY newspaper deprecates the decadence of county court day, a day that used to be an event in the life of the commonwealth. The county seat was crowded when court convened, the jockey and horse-wager did a thriving business and gamblers and fakirs were in their glory, but summary laws and restrictive ordinances have done away with all that, the dime museum features of the day have been driven into back alleys and thus another institution of primitive civilization has fallen into desuetude.

THE Barber's Last Resort.
I went into a nineteenth century torture chamber at Albany the other day. There was a barber's pole outside the door. I went there to get shaved. The executioner had a small knife in his hand after ten minutes I had been decapitated he approached me saw in hand.

Just then I felt myself covered from behind by a small velvet hand. I looked around and saw an enormous colored man, an attaché evidently of the torture chamber. He held me in the chair while the barber hacked up my neck and after ten minutes a bleeding and almost unconscious mass of quivering flesh. I demanded to know why I had been held in the chair.

"I'm sick of having my customers scot out of that chair half done," said the barber, "and so I have hired that man to see that they don't. This is the kind of a hoodoo about this store that makes a man want to run as soon as he begins to 'him.'"—New York Herald.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS. MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST TO THE AGRICULTURIST. One of the Minor Industries—Why Eggs Spoil—A Mangel-Wurzel Pest—Sheep and Wool—Keeping Eggs Fresh—Minor Topics.

One of the Minor Industries. There are several small industries which, without a large increase of labor, may be profitably carried on by the farmer or his family. One of these is keeping.

A Healthy Man's Blood Infected. A novel operation was performed a few days ago at the Philadelphia hospital by Visiting Physician W. E. Hughes in the presence of the resident staff nurses, and the result has been so favorable that it is now the opinion of the medical men interested that a new and immediate cure for pneumonia has been discovered.

AN HONEST GHOST. It Told Where a Valuable Deed Was Hidden. "Speaking of ghosts," said C. M. Conners at the Lindell, "I must say that they have treated me well. I owe all my prosperity to them. In 1866 my wife's father died, leaving, so far as we knew, no property. After his demise my wife declared that he frequently appeared to her and always in the daytime. She was much frightened and insisted upon moving into another house.

How a Theatre Was Paid for. An original feature was introduced into the performance of Shakespeare's "Tempest" when that play was given the other day on the stage of a provincial town. The actual tempo was produced by fifteen men, hidden under the green cloth which served as the surface of the sea, who created the "swelling of the vocal sea" by bobbing up and down. But the theatre did not pay, and the director lowered the wages of the tempo makers from a franc each per night to half that sum. Whereat the men decided to strike.

A Mangel-Wurzel Pest. The mangel-wurzel in some seasons attacked by the larvae of a fly which work havoc with the crop, unless promptly checked. The presence of the pest is easily detected. As the plant begins to show a vigorous growth with broad leaves, they suddenly droop and assume a withered appearance. Examined closely, the leaves will be found to be covered with a mass of small, white, blotchy eggs, and here will be found a little collection of maggots gnawing themselves on the juicy and green colored substances of the plant. Further investigation will show quantities of eggs on many of the leaves, from which maggots are hatching at a lively rate. If allowed to go on unchecked, these voracious little wretches will make sad work of the crop, greatly lessening, if not altogether destroying it.

Jewish Vacations. Of these are, first, the Sabbath, the weekly Sabbath, the seventh moon feast of Trumpets, the Sabbath year of jubilee. Besides these were the great feasts, Passover, Pentecost and Tabernacles, together with the two of latter times—Purim and that of the dedication. The time spent in these observances required frequent and in some cases protracted suspensions of labor. The Jews living in the remote districts of Palestine, particularly the pilgrims to and from Jerusalem, together with the Jews of the Diaspora, were of the least, which in the case of the Passover and Tabernacles was each eight days, meant an amount of migration and recreation and rest of the ordinary occupations of life by year greater proportionately than that obtained in the vacation of these days.—The Independent.

Why She Wears Them. Watts—A man wears suspenders because he needs them, of course, but I'll be switched if I can imagine why a woman should wear them. Potts—Because she doesn't need them, of course.

Good Advice. McCormick—Did you say that you are one of the Lambs? Long-haired Theopist—I did, sir. McCormick—Here's a quarter. Get shaved.—From Blue.

WHAT THE DETECTIVE DID. Hired by a Lawyer, He Followed the Plaintiff Instead of the Defendant. A Washington lawyer is looking for a reliable detective. Some time ago a client brought a case to him in which it was necessary to follow the movements of the prospective defendant in the pursuit of evidence. The attorney was not experienced in the ins and outs of the spying system, so he asked a brother lawyer with a criminal practice to recommend an assistant. The next day, according to the Post, a respectable fellow, with none of the dashing air marks of the dime novel sleuth, slid into the lawyer's office, coolly closed the door to an adjoining room where the type-setter was at work and announced mysteriously, "I'm the detective." Having been given his instructions and all the points in the case, the detective was asked if he felt sanguine of success.

THE SNEEZE-WOOD TREE. This remarkable tree is a native of Africa and other parts of South Africa. Its funny name was given to it because one cannot sneeze without sneezing violently. The dust of its wood has just the effect as the dust of a revolver is in that it is irritating to the nose that workmen are obliged to sneeze even when they are planning it. If a piece of the wood of this tree is put in the mouth it is found to have a very bitter taste, and no doubt it is this bitterness which prevents insects of any kind from touching the timber of the "sneeze-wood tree." The fact that insects find it so disagreeable makes its wood very valuable for work that is required to last a long time.

His Wife's Ashes. Carried About in an Urn By a Drummer in His Travels. A commercial tourist traveling in the interest of a fancy crockery and glassware house arrived at the Palmer one morning with his large trunk filled with samples, which he arranged upon the tables in his room. After completing this work he took from his hand satchel a large and handsome urn, which he placed on his dressing-case. It was a peculiar looking article, resembling the designs of ancient times. He looked at it intently for a few moments, frowned and turned away, sighing and muttering to himself about his wife's ashes. He went about his sample with an air of melancholy, and every time his eyes rested on the mysterious urn he sighed. Dropping into a large chair he buried his face in his hands and was silent for some minutes.

Dorcas's Cross-My-Heart. "They won't stay on when you hit them over," cried Dorcas from the window-seat, where she had retired after grandma's first lesson in knitting. Her cheeks were flushed. "I'll knit out there."

Ann Flaherty came up the road. "I'm going to Smith's for a puppy," she said. "He's got four puppies to sell for me. You can see them if you'll give me one, too." She hung insinuatingly over the front gate. Dorcas had been longing all summer for a puppy. "But I can't," she said. "Mamma's gone to Dover, and I promised grandma something, cross-my-heart."

"I promised to—to iron her cap," Dorcas began to take a lively interest in the cap, which quite excluded the puppy. "You can't iron that," went the little iron—thump, thump! No wonder Bobby Millard got close to the kitchen door before she heard him.

Convention and Saengerfest.

Tomorrow the Biennial Convention and Saengerfest of the German Singers of Minnesota will open in this city for a three days' session and extensive arrangements are being made for their entertainment by Brainerd. It is expected that at least 300 members of the organization will be present from different parts of the state. The programme is published below:

SATURDAY, AUG. 27.

Singers coming from points south will arrive at 5:30 p. m., and those coming from points east will arrive three hours later. The singers and guests will assemble at Gardner's Hall at 9 o'clock p. m., where there will be speeches, singing and a banquet. Music will be furnished by the Third Regiment Band, of this city.

SUNDAY, AUG. 28.

A business convention will be held at Gardner's Hall at 9 a. m. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon a street parade will be formed at Gardner's Hall, and will march east on Laurel street to Broadway, north on Broadway to Front street, west on Front to Sixth, thence south on Sixth to Woodland Park, where a picnic will be held, at which there will be games, races, music, refreshments, etc. The Third Regiment Band will attend the parade and picnic, to which the public is cordially invited.

MONDAY, AUG. 29.

General outing and observation of the city and vicinity. Singers' headquarters at Gardner's Hall.

The Philomels are coming. On August 29th Brainerd will have the pleasure of hearing the Philomel Concert Co. which is highly spoken of in the east and west by the press and public. Every member of the company is an artist in his or her line. The majority of the members are graduates from prominent vocal and elocution colleges. This year the Philomels have with them Mrs. W. F. Kyle a noted vocalist and elocutionist who has been praised by the press and public wherever she has appeared.

Mr. A. N. Speer a young rising pianist of whom critics in the musical world speak very highly, Mr. A. T. Watson, a clever mandolin player late of the Boston Conservatory, and Mr. W. F. Kyle under the auspices of the Humane World in an address on Cruelty to Animals and Human Education. The programme is very choice and no doubt a large audience will greet the Philomels as only a small admission fee will be charged. On Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 30th, Mrs. W. F. Kyle and Company will give “Virginius” Mrs. Kyle as Virginius. Proceeds to go to the ladies of the M. E. Church.

$100 Reward.

Mrs. Paul Pepin called at the DISPATCH office yesterday and stated that she would pay a reward of $100 for the recovery of her son, Leopold Pepin, dead or alive. It will be remembered that on May 15th the boy, who was about 8 years old, while playing with other children at Boom Lake suddenly disappeared and was supposed to have slipped off a log into the lake and was drowned. Although every effort was made to find his body or get some trace of him, it has been a fruitless search.

There will be a meeting of the members of the agricultural association at the office of J. M. Elder next Monday evening at 7:30.

Expect a Big Time. Commissioner Ochterhoney, the founder of the Swedish branch of the Salvation Army under Gen. Booth, is billed for Brainerd Friday evening Sept. 2nd. She will be accompanied by Adj. Sommers, the beautiful Swedish singer, and also Capt. Nelson. The Commissioner is making a tour of the United States and will give the people an insight of the great work of helping evangelize the world. Ten years ago Com. Ochterhoney felt the call to carry salvation to her people, the Swedes, and through strong opposition God gave this woman wonderful success, and to-day there are in Sweden alone from 500 to 600 officers and 11,000 soldiers with a War Cry circulation of 40,000, to provide homes and rescue fallen women where they are helped to lead a better life, and also a food and shelter depot, besides other means of reaching the masses. We heartily welcome her to Brainerd.

Salvationist. The District Court. The fall term of the District court will open on Monday, Sept. 19. The jury list has just been drawn, and is as follows:

Mahood, John Chisholm, Fred S. Parker, J. H. Gibson, Mike Cullen, Joseph Myers, Martin Drake, John A. Cochran, N. A. Lease, Charles Ahrens, O. B. Hamlin.

RESOLUTIONS.
WHEREAS, the Berger-Dainty entertainment given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of this church on last Friday evening was a splendid success owing to the efforts of Mrs. Archie McCulloch and Mrs. C. B. Thompson and other members and friends of the society, and to the patronage of the general, therefore Resolved, that the sincere and most earnest thanks of the Ladies' Aid Society are hereby tendered specially to Mrs. McCulloch and Mrs. C. B. Thompson for their interested and most zealous labors in making the venture a financial success.

Resolved, that we express our deep appreciation also to all others who by their faithful efforts assisted in securing the excellent results attending the entertainment.

Resolved, that our gratitude is hereby expressed to the kind public for their general and very generous patronage, and also for the good words spoken by our city press and others, thereby contributing so much to the happy and financial success of this enterprise.

Mrs. DORA CHADWICK, Secretary.

On The Side.

A prominent merchant of this city in speaking of the credit system on Thursday remarked: “It is hard to understand how the people in this city who do not pay their bills are going to exist in the future from the way the merchants are taking hold of the matter of giving credit, as nearly all have joined the Merchants Retail Commercial agency, of Chicago, and have a branch well under way in Brainerd. While the system of giving credit to responsible parties is all right, it is a well-known fact that there are people who live year after year and pay for very little of what they eat and wear, and it is this class of people that the agency is intended to reach. Many firms in this city have book accounts reaching up into the hundreds of dollars, that are worthless, supposing at the time the credit was given that the parties were good but finding out their mistake when it was too late. We merchants cannot afford to take the chance of a man's paying when to our knowledge he has not paid his bills elsewhere as the risk assumed is altogether out of proportion to the profit. There is risk enough in the credit system without opening an account with people who have the reputation of not paying.”

A concert in preparation by the ladies of the First congregational church to be given in the near future. A rare treat is in store for the citizens of Brainerd. Watch for particulars later.

Mr. and Mrs. N. McFadden left this morning for St. Paul. Mrs. McFadden will go from there to Mankato and Mr. McFadden will go to Mt. Clemens, Mich., at which place he will stay for several weeks.

A petition has been sent Gov. Merriam asking him to pardon Patrick Murphy, who is serving a term in states prison for misappropriating funds while city clerk. It received the signature of nearly all to whom it was presented.

While the city is cleaning up the streets it would be a commendable act if they would have the weeds, which are growing in some places two feet high along the sidewalks, cut down. They give the city a very uncivilized appearance.

The marriage of J. B. Robinson and Miss Lena Van Dine is recorded by the Alexandria papers as having taken place there August 10th. Mr. Robinson is now traveling in the interests of the Workingmen's Mutual Benefit Association, of this city.

The neighboring city of Brainerd is getting to be quite grown-up. A plan is on foot, and one which seems likely to be brought to a successful termination, of paving two blocks of the business street. The paving will be cedar blocks with granite curb.—Transcript.

Dr. J. C. Rosser has decided to remove with his family from this city to St. Paul and is getting his matters in shape preparatory to the move. Dr. Rosser has been in Brainerd for over 20 years and the many friends of himself and family will be sorry to learn of their contemplated departure.

Services will be held in the new Catholic church on Sunday for the first time since the upper portion of the building has been finished. Up to the present time the basement has been used for that purpose and the pastor as well as the congregation is pleased to be able to hold their regular meetings on the ground floor hereafter. The edifice is a credit to the city.

Scheffer Law Victims.

On Tuesday morning True Moores was arrested for drunkenness and sentenced to a fine of $25 or thirty days in the county jail under the Scheffer law, it being the second offense. The third offense is 90 days without the alternative of paying a fine.

Phillip O'Neill was arrested under the same law the first of the week and fined $15 or twenty days.

Complimentary Benefit.

A benefit entertainment will be tendered Manager Alexander at the opera house the first week in September which promises to be a very fine affair, as the best local talent in the city are interested in making it so. Mr. Alexander will leave the city sometime in September to go in advance of the Still Alarm company, one of the best shows on the road, and those interested are giving him this benefit as a token of their appreciation of his endeavors while manager of the Brainerd opera house. That our city has been favored with many of the best companies traveling cannot be denied and it was through his efforts that they came here. It is also safe to assert that the gentleman has not realized any immense fortune since he has had the management of the opera house. The coming entertainment will be of such a character that it is expected every seat in the building will be occupied. The programme and further details will be published in our next issue. During Mr. Alexander's absence the management of the opera house will be conducted by his wife.

Republican Meeting.

A meeting of the republican league club will be held at the central hose house Tuesday evening, Aug. 30th, at 8 o'clock. All republicans are urged to be present.

Church Topics.

The following topics will be discussed at the Congregational church on dates named:

Sunday evening, Aug. 28, Atmosphere of the Bible; Sept. 4, Atmosphere of the Christ; Sept. 11, Atmosphere of the home; Sept. 18, Atmosphere of society; Sept. 25, Atmosphere of our city.

Haverly's Minstrels.

A novelty, because of the old-time features again introduced, will be the attraction at the opera house on Wednesday, Aug. 31st. A few years ago the announcement that Haverly's Mastodon Minstrels were booked at our theatre was greeted with enthusiasm, and when the engagement closed it was with the satisfaction of knowledge that the company had fulfilled all that they had advertised and to the perfect satisfaction of the large crowds that had nightly filled the house; therefore when the announcement that Haverly's Minstrels—the great and only Mastodons—would again be seen in our city, the amusement-loving public hailed it with delight, thereby proving that they remembered the former visit and most excellent entertainment given by this great consolidation of black-face artists. Haverly's Minstrels do not depend on the glitter of gold lace nor the display of white satin costumes to draw an audience; far from it. This minstrel organization is what its name indicates, a combination of minstrelsy, real music enlivened by negro absurdities, wit and humor; it is the same galaxy of black-face favorites which have toured the United States and Europe, the same remarkable company that delighted packed houses at Haverly's own theatre, the Casino, in Chicago, for twenty-eight consecutive weeks. It would be hard to select any one man as especially worthy of mention in this combination of talent; it is even hard to say which of the features is most pleasing, so we will advise our readers to "go see the show" and make their own selections. The following gentlemen are in the circle: Billy Rice, E. M. Hall, E. M. Kayne, Chas. Sully, Harry Constance, A. M. Thatcher, Arthur Yule, Delmore and Wilson, L. M. Motter, Geo. Evans and some thirty others of merit. Among the specialists are Bogert and O'Brien, the great musical comedians; "Kissell," the marvelous military musket manipulator; but why try to enumerate them all? As the posters say, "see small bills," or better still, go see the Haverly Great Mastodons.

Convention and Saengerfest.

Tomorrow the Biennial Convention and Saengerfest of the German Singers of Minnesota will open in this city for a three days' session and extensive arrangements are being made for their entertainment by the Germania Maennerchor of Brainerd. It is expected that at least 300 members of the organization will be present from different parts of the state. The programme is published below:

SATURDAY, AUG. 27.

Singers coming from points south will arrive at 5:30 p. m., and those coming from points east will arrive three hours later. The singers and guests will assemble at Gardner's Hall at 9 o'clock p. m., where there will be speeches, singing and a banquet. Music will be furnished by the Third Regiment Band, of this city.

SUNDAY, AUG. 28.

A business convention will be held at Gardner's Hall at 9 a. m. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon a street parade will be formed at Gardner's Hall, and will march east on Laurel street to Broadway, north on Broadway to Front street, west on Front to Sixth, thence south on Sixth to Woodland Park, where a picnic will be held, at which there will be games, races, music, refreshments, etc. The Third Regiment Band will attend the parade and picnic, to which the public is cordially invited.

MONDAY, AUG. 29.

General outing and observation of the city and vicinity. Singers' headquarters at Gardner's Hall.

The Philomels are coming.

On August 29th Brainerd will have the pleasure of hearing the Philomel Concert Co. which is highly spoken of in the east and west by the press and public. Every member of the company is an artist in his or her line. The majority of the members are graduates from prominent vocal and elocution colleges. This year the Philomels have with them Mrs. W. F. Kyle a noted vocalist and elocutionist who has been praised by the press and public wherever she has appeared. Mr. A. N. Speer a young rising pianist of whom critics in the musical world speak very highly. Mr. A. T. Watson, a clever mandolin player late of the Boston Conservatory, and Mr. W. F. Kyle under the auspices of the Humane World in an address on Cruelty to Animals and Human Education. The programme is very choice and no doubt a large audience will greet the Philomels as only a small admission fee will be charged. On Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 30th, Mrs. W. F. Kyle and Company will give "Virginia" Mrs. Kyle will sing "Procession" Mrs. Kyle and Company will go to the ladies of the M. E. Church.

$100 Reward.

Mrs. Paul Pepin called at the DISPATCH office yesterday and stated that she would pay a reward of $100 for the recovery of her son, Leopold Pepin, dead or alive. It will be remembered that on May 16th the boy, who was about 8 years old, while playing with other children at Boom Lake suddenly disappeared and was supposed to have slipped off a log into the lake and was drowned. Although every effort was made to find his body or get some trace of him, it has been a fruitless search.

There will be a meeting of the members of the agricultural association at the office of J. M. Elder next Monday evening at 7:30.

Expect a Big Time.

Commissioner Ochterhoney, the founder of the Swedish branch of the Salvation Army under Gen. Booth, is billed for Brainerd Friday evening Sept. 2nd. She will be accompanied by Adj. Sommers, the beautiful Swedish singer, and also Capt. Nelson. The Commissioner is making a tour of the United States and will give the people an insight of the great work of helping evangelize the world. Ten years ago Com. Ochterhoney felt the call to carry salvation to her people, the Swedes, and through strong opposition God gave this woman wonderful success, and to-day there are in Sweden alone from 500 to 600 officers and 11,000 soldiers with a War Cry circulation of 40,000, to provide homes and rescue fallen women where they are helped to lead a better life, and also a food and shelter depot, besides other means of reaching the masses. We heartily welcome her to Brainerd. SALVATIONIST.

On The Side.

A prominent merchant of this city in speaking of the credit system on Thursday remarked: "It is hard to understand how the people in this city who do not pay their bills are going to exist in the future from the way the merchants are taking hold of the matter of giving credit, as nearly all have joined the Merchants Retail Commercial agency, of Chicago, and have a branch well under way in Brainerd. While the system of giving credit to responsible parties is all right, it is a well-known fact that there are people who live year after year and pay for very little of what they eat and wear, and it is this class of people that the agency is intended to reach. Many firms in this city have book accounts reaching up into the hundreds of dollars, that are worthless, supposing at the time the credit was given that the parties were good but finding out their mistake when it was too late. We merchants cannot afford to take the chance of a man's paying when to our knowledge he has not paid his bills elsewhere as the risk assumed is altogether out of proportion to the profits. There is risk enough in the credit system without opening an account with people who have the reputation of not paying."

Cod. Kimball had a broad grin on his face when he met the reporter Tuesday morning, just in from his stopping place at Pelican Creek. A year ago Mr. Kimball got possession of four young Canadian wild geese and they were raised with his other domestic fowls and became as tame as could be. These geese stayed with him until the first of May when they disappeared suddenly and the gentleman never expected to see them again as their prolonged stay indicated that they had forsaken their domestic relations for the wild life led by their ancestors. On Monday morning, however, the four geese were seen high in the air circling around over his farm and they alighted in the barn yard where they allowed themselves to be driven into the pen and caught, and their wings were immediately cropped. The birds are perfectly contented and it is quite probable that it will be some time before they are allowed to take a three months' leave of absence again.

Dr. Groves had ten dollars' worth of fun on Tuesday morning—at least that was the firm imposed upon him by Judge Chipfield in the Municipal court yesterday for shooting a dog belonging to Charles Cole. The doctor has two or three bird dogs which he prizes very highly and on Tuesday morning one of them got tangled up with Mr. Cole's dog near the Arlington hotel, and he shot twice at the dog which he considered to be the offender, and which he claims is in the habit of pitching into his dogs. The arrest was made under the ordinance regulating the shooting of fire arms in the city limits. Mr. Groves plead his own case before the court.

A concert in preparation by the ladies of the First congregational church to be given in the near future. A rare treat is in store for the citizens of Brainerd. Watch for particulars later.

Mr. and Mrs. N. McFadden left this morning for St. Paul. Mrs. McFadden will go from there to Mankato and Mr. McFadden will go to Mt. Clemens, Mich., at which place he will stay for several weeks.

A petition has been sent Gov. Merriam asking him to pardon Patrick Murphy, who is serving a term in state prison for misappropriating funds while city clerk. It received the signature of nearly all to whom it was presented.

While the city is cleaning up the streets it would be a commendable act if they would have the weeds, which are growing in some places two feet high along the sidewalks, cut down. They give the city a very unclean appearance.

The marriage of J. B. Robinson and Miss Lena Van Dine is recorded by the Alexandria papers as having taken place there August 10th. Mr. Robinson is now traveling in the interests of the Workingmen's Mutual Benefit Association, of this city.

The neighboring city of Brainerd is getting to be quite grown-up. A plan is on foot, and one which seems likely to be brought to a successful termination, of paving two blocks of the business street. The paving will be cedar blocks with granite curb.—Transcript.

Dr. J. C. Rosser has decided to remove with his family from this city to St. Paul and is getting his matters in shape preparatory to the move. Dr. Rosser has been in Brainerd for over 20 years and his many friends of himself and family will be sorry to learn of their contemplated departure.

Services will be held in the new Catholic church on Sunday for the first time since the upper portion of the building has been finished. Up to the present time the basement has been used for that purpose and the pastor as well as the congregation is pleased to be able to hold their regular meetings on the ground floor hereafter. The edifice is a credit to the city.

A four month old daughter of Frank Syora died yesterday of croup.

Geo. LaBar was at Grand Forks Monday on a duck hunting trip with Geo. A. Keene.

A. F. Ferris was in St. Paul yesterday attending a meeting of the State Game and Fish Commission.

Miss Katie McGinn, of Minneapolis, is visiting her brother, H. McGinn, and other relatives and friends this week.

Mrs. N. H. Ingersoll and son have gone to Plover and other Wisconsin points for a visit and will be absent five or six weeks.

We expect next Monday a large consignment of California Peaches, Pears and Plums for preserving, which will be sold cheap. Don't miss this chance. BEACH, COLE & BEACH.

Mr. Walter H. Cobban, special agent of the Manchester Fire Insurance company, was here the first of the week adjusting the loss by fire of Wm. Duthie, which occurred the morning of the 1st inst. Mr. and Mrs. Duthie were perfectly satisfied with the settlement made. J. R. Smith is the local agent.

Scheffer Law Victims.

On Tuesday morning True Moores was arrested for drunkenness and sentenced to a fine of $25 or thirty days in the county jail under the Scheffer law, it being the second offense. The third offense is 90 days without the alternative of paying a fine.

Phillip O'Neil was arrested under the same law the first of the week and fined $15 or twenty days.

Complimentary Benefit.

A benefit entertainment will be tendered Manager Alexander at the opera house the first week in September which promises to be a very fine affair, as the best local talent in the city are interested in making it so. Mr. Alexander will leave the city sometime in September to go in advance of the Still Alarm company, one of the best shows on the road, and those interested are giving him this benefit as a token of their appreciation of his endeavors while manager of the Brainerd opera house. That our city has been favored with many of the best companies traveling cannot be denied and it was through his efforts that they came here. It is also safe to assert that the gentleman has not realized any immense fortune since he has had the management of the opera house. The coming entertainment will be of such a character that it is expected every seat in the building will be occupied. The programme and further details will be published in our next issue. During Mr. Alexander's absence the management of the opera house will be conducted by his wife.

Republican Meeting.

A meeting of the republican league club will be held at the central hose house Tuesday evening, Aug. 30th, at 8 o'clock. All republicans are urged to be present.

J. T. FRATER, President.

Church Topics.

The following topics will be discussed at the congregational church on dates named:

Sunday evening, Aug. 28, Atmosphere of the Bible; Sept. 4, Atmosphere of the Christ; Sept. 11, Atmosphere of the home; Sept. 18, Atmosphere of society; Sept. 25, Atmosphere of our city.

Haverly's Minstrels.

A novelty, because of the old-time features again introduced, will be the attraction at the opera house on Wednesday, Aug. 31st. A few years ago the announcement that Haverly's Mastodon Minstrels were booked at our theatre was greeted with enthusiasm, and when the engagement closed it was with the satisfaction of a knowledge that the company had fulfilled all that they had advertised and to the perfect satisfaction of the large crowds that had nightly filled the house; therefore when the announcement that Haverly's Minstrels—the great and only Mastodons—would again be seen in our city, the amusement-loving public hailed it with delight, thereby proving that they remembered the former visit and most excellent entertainment given by this great consolidation of black-face artists. Haverly's Minstrels do not depend on the glitter of gold lace nor the display of white satin frocks to draw an audience; far from it. This minstrel organization is what its name indicates, a combination of minstrelsy, real music, and humor; it is the same galaxy of black-face favorites which have toured the United States and Europe, the same remarkable company that delighted packed houses at Haverly's own theatre, the Casino, in Chicago, for twenty-eight consecutive weeks. It would be hard to select any one man as especially worthy of mention in this combination of talent; it is even hard to say which of the features is most pleasing, so we will advise our readers to "go see the show" and make their own selections. The following gentlemen are in the circle: Billy Rice, E. M. Hall, E. M. Kayne, Chas. Sully, Harry Constantine, A. M. Thacker, Arthur Yule, Delmore and Wilson, L. M. Mettler, Geo. Evans and some thirty others of merit. Among the specialists are Robert and O'Brien, the great musical comedians; "Kissell," the marvelous military music manipulator; but why try to enumerate them all? As the posters say, "see small bills," or better still, go see the Haverly's Great Mastodons.

Expect a Big Time.

Commissioner Ochterhoney, the founder of the Swedish branch of the Salvation Army under Gen. Booth, is billed for Brainerd Friday evening Sept. 2nd. She will be accompanied by Adj. Semmers, the beautiful Swedish singer, and also Capt. Nelson. The Commissioner is making a tour of the United States and will give the people an insight of the great work of helping evangelize the world. Ten years ago Com. Ochterhoney felt the call to carry salvation to her people, the Swedes, and through strong opposition God gave this woman wonderful success, and to-day there are in Sweden alone from 600 to 600 officers and 11,000 soldiers with a War Cry circulation of 40,000, to provide homes and rescue fallen women where they are helped to lead a better life, and also a food and shelter depot, besides other means of reaching the masses. We heartily welcome her to Brainerd.

WHEREAS, the Berger-Dainty entertainment given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of this church on last Friday evening was a splendid success owing to the efforts of Mrs. Archie McCulloch and Mrs. C. B. Thompson and other members and friends of the society, and to the patronage of the general, therefore Resolved, that the sincere and most earnest thanks of the Ladies' Aid Society are hereby tendered specially to Mrs. McCulloch and Mrs. C. B. Thompson for their interested and most zealous labors in making the venture a financial success.

Resolved, that we express our deep appreciation also to all others who by their faithful efforts assisted in securing the excellent results attending the entertainment.

Resolved, that our gratitude is hereby expressed to the kind public for their general and very generous patronage, and also for the good words spoken by our city press and others, thereby contributing so much to the happy and financial success of this enterprise.

Mrs. DORA CHADWICK, Secretary.

Convention and Saengerfest.

Tomorrow the Biennial Convention and Saengerfest of the German singers of Minnesota will open in this city for a three days' session and extensive arrangements are being made for their entertainment by the Germania Maennerchor of Brainerd. It is expected that at least 300 members of the organization will be present from different parts of the state. The programme is published below:

SATURDAY, AUG. 27.

Singers coming from points south will arrive at 5:30 p. m., and those coming from the north at 7:30 a. m. The singers and guests will assemble at Gardner's Hall at 9 o'clock p. m., where there will be speeches, singing and a banquet. Music will be furnished by the Third Regiment Band, of this city.

SUNDAY, AUG. 28.

A business convention will be held at Gardner's Hall at 9 a. m. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon a street parade will be formed at Gardner's Hall, and will march east on Laurel street to Broadway, north on Broadway to Front street, west on Front to Sixth, thence south on Sixth to Woodland Park, where a picnic will be held, at which there will be games, races, music, refreshments, etc. The Third Regiment Band will attend the parade and picnic, to which the public is cordially invited.

MONDAY, AUG. 29.

General outing and observation of the city and vicinity. Singers' headquarters at Gardner's Hall.

The Philomels are coming.

On August 29th Brainerd will have the pleasure of hearing the Philomel Concert Co. which is highly spoken of in the east and west by the press and public. Every member of the company is an artist in his or her line. The majority of the members are graduates from prominent vocal and elocution colleges. This year the Philomels have with them Mrs. W. F. Kyle a noted vocalist and elocutionist who has been praised by the press and public wherever she has appeared. Mr. A. N. Spoor a young rising pianist of whom critics in the musical world speak very highly. Mr. A. T. Watson, a clever mandolin player late of the Boston Conservatory, and Mr. W. F. Kyle under the auspices of the Humano World in an address on Cruelty to Animals and Human Education. The programme is very choice and no doubt a large audience will greet the Philomels as only a small admission fee will be charged. On Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 30th, Mrs. W. F. Kyle and Company will give "Virginius" Mrs. Kyle as Virginius. Proceeds to go to the ladies of the M. E. Church.

$100 Reward.

Mrs. Paul Pepin called at the DISPATCH office yesterday and stated that she would pay a reward of $100 for the recovery of her son, Leopold Pepin, dead or alive. It will be remembered that on May 15th the boy, who was about 2 years old, while playing with other children at Boom Lake suddenly disappeared and was supposed to have slipped off a log into the lake and was drowned. Although every effort was made to find his body or get some trace of him, it has been a fruitless search.

There will be a meeting of the members of the agricultural association at the office of J. M. Elder next Monday evening at 7:30.

On The Side.

A prominent merchant of this city in speaking of the credit system on Thursday remarked: "It is hard to understand how the people in this city who do not pay their bills are going to exist in the future from the way the merchants are taking hold of the matter of giving credit, as nearly all have joined the Merchants Retail Commercial agency, of Chicago, and have a branch well under way in Brainerd. While the system of giving credit to responsible parties is all right, it is a well-known fact that there are people who live year after year and pay for very little of what they eat and wear, and it is this class of people that the agency is intended to reach. Many firms in this city have book accounts reaching up into the hundreds of dollars, that are worthless, supposing at the time the credit was given that the parties were good but finding out their mistake when it was too late. We merchants cannot afford to take the chance of a man's paying when to our knowledge he has not paid his bills elsewhere as the risk assumed is altogether out of proportion to the profits. There is risk enough in the credit system without opening an account with people who have the reputation of not paying."

Cod Kimball had a broad grin on his face when he met the reporter Tuesday morning, just from his stopping place at Pelican Creek. A year ago Mr. Kimball got possession of four young Canadian wild geese and they were raised with his other domestic fowls and became as tame as could be. These geese stayed with him until the first of May when they disappeared suddenly and the gentleman never expected to see them again as they had forsaken their domestic relations for the wild life led by their ancestors. On Monday morning, however, the four geese were seen high in the air circling around over his farm and they alighted in the barn yard where they allowed themselves to be driven into the pen and caught, and their wings were immediately cropped. The birds are perfectly contented and it is quite probable that it will be some time before they are allowed to take a three months' leave of absence again.

Dr. Groves had ten dollars' worth of fun on Tuesday morning—at least that was the fine imposed upon him by Judge Chipfield in the Municipal court yesterday for shooting a dog belonging to Charles Cole. The doctor has two or three bird dogs which he prizes very highly and on Tuesday morning one of them got tangled up with Mr. Cole's dog near the Arlington hotel, and he shot twice at the dog which he considered to be the offender, and which he claims is in the habit of pitching into his dogs. The arrest was made under the ordinance regulating the shooting of fire arms in the city limits. Mr. Groves pleaded his own case before the court.
